AYIA NAPA YOUTH SOCCER FESTIVAL 2023

PARTICIPATION RULES / TERMS & CONDITIONS

General Statement

The tournament organizers will try to operate on the basis as described below but will retain the right to change the program in line with outside influences such as inclement weather, late arrivals and late changes to fixtures or for any other reason.

The program of events can be extended before or after the tournament to meet the team requirements especially of overseas teams.

Teams are obliged to arrive for their games in time so as to avoid delays, complaints or possible disqualifications. Late start of games is not allowed unless caused by serious and unpredictable reasons. In such justified cases and if possible the tournament disciplinary board reserves the right to appoint new time for games to start.

The tournament organizers retain the right to adjust or change any of the tournament rules and regulations at any time prior or during the tournament without any prior notice to teams for the smooth running of the tournament games and the tournament event in general. Such changes will be notified to teams straight after the decision.

THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE

Schools and Sports Club academies, private academies or soccer schools, members of official associations and football federations coming from Cyprus or abroad can register in Ayia Napa Youth Soccer Festival. Our tournament does not require any kind of approval or permission for participation from any local or international association. It is therefore the responsibility of the teams themselves to acquire such kind of approval if the association where they possibly belong to has any kind of limitations to tournament participations.

One of the biggest football tournaments in Europe their knock out games in category A. Finals for Knock out Category A will take place on Wednesday 12th April.

CATEGORY B:

Teams qualifying from the Lions group stage games together with the disqualified teams from the Eagles groups' stage will join together and be drawn to proceed for their knock out games in category B. Finals for Knock out Category B will take place on Wednesday 12th April..

CATEGORY C:

Disqualified teams from the Lions groups' stage will be drawn to proceed for their knock out games in category C. Finals for Knock out Category C will take place on Tuesday 11th April.

For rest of Boys age groups from 2007 down to 2010 plus Girls competitions the qualification process is as normal with group leading teams proceeding to the knock out stage per different age group category.

In general, the number of teams to qualify will depend on the number of groups to be formed depending on the total number of registered participations.

RIGHT TO USE FOOTBALLERS / IDENTIFICATION / OBJECTIONS / GAME STOPAGE

1. Each academy authorized user with in the time period set and as described in the tournament rules and regulations, should register online the list of players individually by age category through our official competition registrations webpage. The online registration must include the full name, date of birth and the footballer's jersey number.
2. Player's T' shirt number is required during the process of online players' registration. According to the playing regulations of the tournament more than one player cannot have the same t'shirt number playing in the same age and level category.
3. The online team roster per different age group should be printed and carried by the group leader or coach in every tournament game. The use of football players not officially registered under the online registration process is prohibited.
4. All coaches or academy leaders should carry with them during the tournament games prove of identity and age such as original birth certificates with attached certified photo, original passports or identities or certified true copies of any of the above certificates. Official football federation identities as well as official health certificates with player's photo can be used as proof of birth date & identification.

5. It is strictly forbidden to move players from EAGLES to LIONS throughout the course and in any stage of the competition. Players registered as Lions can be moved however and used in Eagles groups as long as they are in the right age limit.
6. It is forbidden to move players from one academy to another name academy as well as from A to B and C teams of the same academy in cases of participation involving more than one group in an age category.
7. It is not prohibited by other academies and soccer schools to use football players enrolled in CYPRUS F.A. registered teams, as long as those players are from the beginning of the tournament registered in the roster of the academy with which they will participate. However, parallel use of these players by more than one team or academy is prohibited in our tournament matches.
8. All children are required to wear protective shin guards during the tournament games.
9. Younger players may also participate in an older age division with their academy provided that they are officially enrolled in at least one of the team rosters of his academy age groups.
10. Unlimited number of girls can join in the boys' teams / girls can be up to 1 year over aged.
11. Unlimited number of substitutions in all ages.
12. In 11 VS 11 age groups substituted players cannot go back in the game. Substitutes in these 11 vs 11 age groups can be made at 3 different stages of stopping the game per team opponent for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary and deliberate delays in the game.
13. Unlimited numbers of substitutes are allowed for all of the rest age groups (9 vs 9, 7 vs 7 & 5 vs 5), with substitute players allowed to return back in the game. Substitution of players is done without stopping the game at the coaches' side line.
14. Red or yellow cards are only valid for the remainder of the game and are not transferable to any of the next tournament games. But they will be taken into account seriously in relation to nominating and awarding fair play prizes to teams per different age category.
15. The organizers together with the field marshals or referees can at any time during the tournament ask for players' identification and birthdates confirmation.
16. Team leaders can request and demand identification and birthdates control of the opponent team players given that their demand is being notified to the referee and the field marshal prior to the start and before the end of the games. In the event of objection this should also be notified and noted down by the referee on the game's sheet.
17. Possible objections will be dealt with by the special organizers' objections committee, which will be obliged to deal with the objections and decide where possible before the start of the next match of the contending team or at the latest and certainly before the start of the next stage of the event. The objection committee is composed of representatives of the organizers and the secretarial staff of the tournament.

18. In the event of a breach of the basic rules of the competition, and in particular the age and identity of the players, the team found to have committed the breach shall be penalized with 0 points in the particular under objection game. The organizers retain the right to penalize with 0 points or even disqualify the team from the tournament in the event that the same team in objection is found guilty in committing the same or any other breach of the rules in any of the previous games even if there was no official objection previously notified by any of the opponent teams.
19. The responsibility and decision for the interruption or complete stoppage of games in dispute, rests with the organizers after careful consideration and examination of the referee and field manager comments noted down on the match sheet. Depending on the case, the organizers may decide to continue the game from the time of its interruption or even to repeat it. The organizers retain the right to substitute the referees of the game if it's considered necessary for the smooth completion of games.
20. Referees may request replacement or additional security where and when they do not feel the required security. At the same time they may suggest to stop games in dispute but the final decision rests with the organizers for taking the final decision.
21. TEAMS DEPARTING ABANDONING THE EVENT / A team abandoning the competition or simply does not show up in a particular match for any unjustified reason, then that team is immediately excluded from the competition and all its previous matches in the same phase of the tournament are awarded 3-0 in favor of the opponent.

GAME RULES

GAME SHEET

22. A game sheet is kept for every single game on which the referee has to note down the team names, date, score, referees names, red or yellow cards, possible disputes and objections, as well as any other general remarks and comments related to the match itself, the atmosphere, bad and strange behaviors coming from anyone involved in the games including parents and fans. The referee or supervisor will be able to indicate actions that promote the sport and in general sportsmanship and mutual respect.
The referees are responsible for maintaining and completing the game sheet with the correct score. At the end of the game the score sheet must be signed by the referee as well as the 2 coaches for the purpose of checking and confirming the correctness of the result.
23. Each coach must also confirm with the referee and field supervisor immediately after the end of the match the names of the team's goal scorers to be recorded on the score sheet for the correct nomination of the first scorer prize per age category.

GAME & EXTRA TIME DURATION / PENALTY PROCEEDURE FOR KNOCK OUT STAGE

24. In age groups 11 vs 11 the duration of the games is 30 minutes each half. In the 9 vs 9 and 7 vs 7 age categories the duration of the games will be 25 minutes per half. In the age groups 5 vs 5 it will be 20 minutes per half time.
25. For all age groups the half time will be of 5 minutes only.
26. Extra time at knock out stages and finals
For Age groups 2007/2008/2009/2010 (2 X 7,5 minutes)
For the rest of the age groups 2011/2012/2013/2014/2015/2016/2017 and girls (2 X 5 minutes.)
27. In the event of a tie after the extra time, penalty shootout will take place (5 shots per team) and then 1 shot per team if there still a tie at the end of the 5 shots. For the ages of 2007 to 2010 (11 vs 11) only players who were playing until the final whistle are entitled for the penalty shootout. In the other age categories all players have a right to a penalty shootout but cannot take a second penalty shot unless all registered players have taken their shot.
28. Before or during the penalty process goalkeeper replacement is allowed for the age categories 2011 to 2017 while in the age groups of 2007 to 2010 (11 vs. 11) the goalkeeper can only be replaced after injury.

POINTS SYSTEM AND TABLE POSITIONS

29. Games points 3-1-0.
30. For decisions regarding table positions i.e. best third-placed teams / equality of points we take into account the following:
