AYIA NAPA YOUTH SOCCER FESTIVAL 2024

PARTICIPATION RULES / TERMS & CONDITIONS

General Statement

The tournament organizers will try to operate on the basis as described below but will retain the right to change the program in line with outside influences such as inclement weather, late arrivals and late changes to fixtures or for any other reason.

The program of events can be extended before or after the tournament to meet the team requirements especially of overseas teams.

Teams are obliged to arrive for their games in time so as to avoid delays, complaints or possible disqualifications. Late start of games is not allowed unless caused by serious and unpredictable reasons. In such justified cases and if possible the tournament disciplinary board reserves the right to appoint new time for games to start.

The tournament organizers retain the right to adjust or change any of the tournament rules and regulations at any time prior or during the tournament without any prior notice to teams for the smooth running of the tournament games and the tournament event in general. Such changes will be notified to teams straight after the decision.

THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE

Schools and Sports Club academies, private academies or soccer schools, members of official associations and football federations coming from Cyprus or abroad can register in Ayia Napa Youth Soccer Festival. Our tournament does not require any kind of approval or permission for participation from any local or international association. It is therefore the responsibility of the teams themselves to acquire such kind of approval if the association where they possibly belong to has any kind of limitations to tournament participation.

QUALIFICATION PROCESS AND KNOCK OUT STAGE FOR AGE CATEGORIES FROM 2012 TO 2017 WITH PARTICIPATIONS IN LIONS AND EAGLES LEVELS.

FORMATION OF 3 DIFFERENT LEVEL CATEGORIES FOR KNOCK OUT STAGE AS BELOW:

CATEGORY A:

Teams qualifying from the Eagles group stage games will be drawn as normal to proceed for their knock out games in category A. Finals for Knock out Category A scheduled to take place on Wednesday 01st May.

CATEGORY B:

Teams qualifying from the Lions group stage games together with the disqualified teams from the Eagles groups' stage will join together and be drawn to proceed for their knock out games in category B. Finals for Knock out Category B scheduled to take place on Wednesday 01st May.

CATEGORY C:

Disqualified teams from the Lions groups' stage will be drawn to proceed for their knock out games in category C. Finals for Knock out Category C scheduled to take place on Tuesday 30th April.

For rest of Boys age groups from 2008 down to 2011 plus Girls competitions the qualification process is as normal with group leading teams proceeding to the knock out stage per different age group category.

In general, the number of teams to qualify will depend on the number of groups to be formed depending on the total number of registered participation.

RIGHT TO USE FOOTBALLERS / IDENTIFICATION / OBJECTIONS / GAME STOPAGE

1. Each academy authorized user within the time period set and as described in the tournament rules and regulations, should register online the list of players individually by age category through our official competition registrations web page. The online registration must include the full name, date of birth and the footballer's jersey number. Players to be used according to the tournament rules in more than one team of the same academy have to be registered online in all teams rosters. However they will only pay registration fee once.
2. Player's T' shirt number is required during the process of online players' registration. According to the playing regulations of the tournament for the 11 vs 11 age group categories more than one player cannot have the same t'shirt number playing in the same age and level category team. This does not imply to the rest of the age groups however still they must have numbers at the back.
3. The online team roster per different age group should be printed and carried by the group leader or coach in every tournament game. The use of football players not officially registered under the online registration process is prohibited.
4. All coaches or academy leaders should carry with them during the tournament games proof of identity and age such as original birth certificates with attached certified photo, original passports or identities or certified true copies of any of the above certificates. Official football federation identities as well as official health certificates with player's photo can be used as proof of birth date & identification.

5. It is strictly forbidden to move players from EAGLES to LIONS throughout the course and in any stage of the competition. Players registered as Lions can be moved however and used in Eagles groups as long as they are in the right age limit.
6. It is forbidden to move players from one academy to another name academy as well as from A to B and C teams of the same academy in cases of participation involving more than one group in an age category.
7. The tournament can examine team requests and allow the use of players in more than one age group outside the above previous rules as an exemption only for goalkeepers. However this should be requested and approved prior to the start of the tournament.
8. It is not prohibited by other academies and soccer schools to use football players enrolled in CYPRUS F.A. registered teams, as long as those players are from the beginning of the tournament registered in the roster of the academy with which they will participate. However, parallel use of these players by more than one team or academy is prohibited in our tournament matches.
9. All children are required to wear protective shin guards during the tournament games.
10. Younger players may also participate in an older age division with their academy provided that they are officially enrolled in at least one of the team rosters of his academy age groups.
11. Unlimited number of girls can join in the boys' teams / girls can be up to 1 year over aged.
12. Unlimited number of substitutions in all ages.
13. In 11 VS 11 age groups substituted players cannot go back in the game. Substitutes in these 11 vs 11 age groups can be made at 3 different stages of stopping the game per team opponent for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary and deliberate delays in the game.
14. Unlimited numbers of substitutes are allowed for all of the rest age groups (9 vs 9, 7 vs 7 & 5 vs 5), with substitute players allowed to return back in the game. Substitution of players is done at the coaches' side line.
15. Red or yellow cards are only valid for the remainder of the game and are not transferable to any of the next tournament games. But they will be taken into account seriously in relation to nominating and awarding fair play prizes to teams per different age category.
16. The organizers together with the field marshals or referees can at any time during the tournament ask for players' identification and birth dates confirmation.
17. Team leaders can request and demand identification and birth dates control of the opponent team players given that their demand is being notified to the referee and the field marshal prior to the start and before the end of the games. In the event of objection this should also be notified and noted down by the referee on the game's sheet.
18. Possible objections will be dealt with by the special organizers' objections committee, which will be obliged to deal with the objections and decide where possible before the start of the next match of the contending team or at the latest and certainly before the start of the next stage of the event. The objection committee is composed of representatives of the organizers and the secretarial staff of the tournament.

19. In the event of a breach of the basic rules of the competition, and in particular the age and identity of the players, the team found to have committed the breach shall be penalized with 0 points in the particular under objection game. The organizers retain the right to penalize with 0 points or even disqualify the team from the tournament in the event that the same team in objection is found guilty in committing the same or any other breach of the rules in any of the previous games even if there was no official objection previously notified by any of the opponent teams.
20. The responsibility and decision for the interruption or complete stoppage of games in dispute, rests with the organizers after careful consideration and examination of the referee and field manager comments noted down on the match sheet. Depending on the case, the organizers may decide to continue the game from the time of its interruption or even to repeat it. The organizers retain the right to substitute the referees of the game if it's considered necessary for the smooth completion of games.
21. Referees may request replacement or additional security where and when they do not feel the required security. At the same time they may suggest to stop games in dispute but the final decision rests with the organizers for taking the final decision.
22. TEAMS DEPARTING ABANDONING THE EVENT / A team abandoning the competition or simply does not show up in a particular match for any unjustified reason, then that team is immediately excluded from the competition and all its previous matches in the same phase of the tournament are awarded 3-0 in favor of the opponent.

GAME RULES

GAME SHEET

23. A game sheet is kept for every single game on which it is noted down the team names, date, game score, referees names, red or yellow cards, possible disputes and objections, as well as any other general remarks and comments related to the match itself, the atmosphere, bad and strange behaviors coming from anyone involved in the games including parents and fans. The referee or supervisor will be able to indicate actions that promote the sport and in general sportsmanship and mutual respect.

The referees are responsible for maintaining and completing the game sheet with the correct score. At the end of the game the score sheet must be signed by the referee as well as the 2 coaches for the purpose of checking and confirming the correctness of the result.

24. It is the responsibility of each coach to confirm with the referee and field supervisor immediately after the end of the match the score noted down on the game sheet as well as the names of the team's goal scorers to be recorded on the score sheet for the correct nomination of the first scorer prize per age category.

GAME & EXTRA TIME DURATION / PENALTY PROCEEDURE FOR KNOCK OUT STAGE

25. In age groups 11 vs 11 the duration of the games is 30 minutes each half. In the 9 vs 9 and 7 vs 7 age categories the duration of the games will be 25 minutes per half. In the age groups 5 vs 5 it will be 20 minutes per half time.
26. For all age groups the half time will be of 5 minutes only.
27. Extra time at knock out stages and finals
For Age groups 2008/2009/2010/2011 (2 X 7,5 minutes)
For the rest of the age groups 2012/2013/2014/2015/2016/2017/2018 and girls (2 X 5 minutes.)
28. In the event of a tie after the extra time, penalty shootout will take place (5 shots per team) and then 1 shot per team if there still a tie at the end of the 5 shots. For the ages of 2008 to 2011 (11 vs 11) only players who were playing until the final whistle are entitled for the penalty shootout. In the other age categories all players have a right to a penalty shootout but cannot take a second penalty shot unless all registered players have taken their shot.
29. Before or during the penalty process goalkeeper replacement is allowed for the age categories 2012 to 2018 while in the age groups of 2008 to 2012 (11 vs. 11) the goalkeeper can only be replaced after injury.

POINTS SYSTEM AND TABLE POSITIONS

30. Games points 3-1-0.
31. For decisions regarding table positions i.e. best third-placed teams / equality of points we take into account the following:
Best third-placed teams where needed are determined in accordance with the following criteria (in descending order):

 - b. superior goal difference;
 - c. higher number of goals scored;
 - d. higher number of away goals scored; (does not imply for this tournament)
 - e. higher number of wins;
 - f. higher number of away wins; (does not imply for this tournament)
 - g. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in all group matches
(red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

32. Equality of points – group stage

If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied in the order given to determine their rankings:

- a. higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- b. superior goal difference from the group matches played among the teams in question;
- c. higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- d. higher number of goals scored away from home in the group matches played among the teams in question; (does not imply for this tournament)
- e. if, after having applied criteria a) to d), teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to d) are reapplied exclusively to the matches between the teams in question to determine their final rankings. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria f) to l) apply;
- f. superior goal difference in all group matches;
- g. higher number of goals scored in all group matches;
- h. higher number of away goals scored in all group matches; (does not imply for this tournament)
- i. higher number of wins in all group matches;
- j. higher number of away wins in all group matches; (does not imply for this tournament)
- k. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in all group matches (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);
- l. higher club coefficient (see Annex D). (Does not imply for this tournament)

REFEREEING

33. Referees from Cyprus referees association and the official Cyprus Federation will be appointed given that they will have the approval from their association. Amateur local or international referees as well as ex referees or non-qualified volunteers can be appointed in the case of emergency.
34. For the age categories from 2008 to 2011 (11 vs. 11) 3 referees will be appointed. In the event of a shortage, these emergencies could be covered by third unofficial and non-qualified volunteers such as coaches, parents or fans given that both teams competing will agree. In addition, the organizers reserve the right to use less referees i.e. two or even one in case of a serious shortage or emergency.

SPECIAL GAME RULES PER AGE CATEGORIES

35. Unless otherwise specified in this publication either in the above or below paragraphs, all games are being played under international official rules for 11 aside games and under the Cyprus official association grass roots rules for the lower age groups (9 aside, 7 aside and 5 aside). The tournament organizers retain the right to adjust or change any of the tournament rules and regulations at any time prior or during the tournament without any prior notice to teams for the smooth running of the tournament games and the tournament event in general. Such changes will be notified to teams straight after the decision.
- Age groups 2008 / 2009 / 2010 / 2011- 11 vs 11 – 2 x 30 minutes – Unlimited number of Substitutions. Substitutions at this age category can be made at only three different stages per team. Responsibility of the "Group" Leader

It is the responsibility of each team participant or organization (the "Group") to ensure that group members, staff and minors' parents accept, understand and follow the tournament (the "Tournament") rules and procedures. Each group must have a competent leader (the "Group leader") in charge to liaise with the tournament staff. We recommend a ratio of one group leader to ten group members.

Parent/guardian consent

It is the group leader's responsibility to ensure that all participants under 18 years of age have appropriate parent/guardian consent to attend the tournament.

Behaviour

The group leader is responsible for group members supervision at all times. Tournament staff or their sub-contracted outdoor activity providers may instruct, lead, demonstrate or assist in any activity but the group leader is deemed to be responsible for overall group supervision, safety and behaving according to Code of Conduct.

Group leaders are asked to remind group members to respect each other, others' personal property and the environment. Noise levels are to be reduced especially in hotel accommodation and dining areas.

Loss and damages

The teams and groups themselves are responsible for any kind of loss or damage at any time during the tournament and for any reason and accept the participation of their members and use of facilities and equipment at their own risk.

Property damage and loss

Group members must not misuse or damage any property at the tournament facilities and the hotel where they will be accommodated. All breakages and losses to property reported will be the responsibility of the "Group" and its individual members.

One of the biggest football tournaments in Europe

Health/Safety & Insurance

The "Group" is responsible to ensure that all participants are certified as in good health and fit enough to train and exercise competitive sports and take part in any other fun and leisure activities of the tournament.

The "Group" is also responsible for the issue of travel insurance as well as for the issue of appropriate insurance cover against any kind of loss and or damage, at any time during the tournament and for any reason.

The "Group" is also responsible for providing their own staff physio or first aid providers at the time of the tournament, unless otherwise pre agreed and requested or promoted in our official brochure as included in our tournament participation and accommodation package. The tournament will care for the general provision of first aid, doctor, ambulance and security men during the tournament event. Such services could be offered on Individual or exclusive basis but at extra cost to the groups upon written request from the "Group" leader.

It is at the Group's own discretion and jurisdiction to refuse or stop their or any of their members participation in the events or activities if they judge that they or any member of the family or the team members run any risk to his/her physical and mental health without, however, the right of demand as to any financial or other claim for compensation.

The tournament therefore, bares no responsibility for any kind of loss or injury, at any time during the event and for any reason to the participants.
